

SUCCESS STORIES OF 2018-2019

F.3(6)-TCW /DV /01.11.2018

On 26.07.2018, one housewife from Amlapara under Khowai Jurisdiction, lodged written complaint against her Sister-in-law. The complainant informed that she stayed separately with her sister-in-law in one house. Family Dispute arised among Complainant and her sister-in-law after complainant's marriage. The opposite party falsely tried to establish an illicit relation among complainant and her brother-in-law and also passed filthy comments often. As a result of which the complainant tried to commit suicide twice. On the basis of complaint, Commission called both the parties for counselling. The opposite party did not attend first counselling session but both the parties were present in second and third counselling session. In third counselling session, commission solved the matter on the basis of some conditions. The opposite party stayed separate along with her husband and children. In Follow-Up session, both the parties informed commission that they are living peacefully. Commission closed the matter as reconciled.

F .3(1)- TCW /DH/Sl.112/18

On 13.08.2018, one lady from Aamgaichhabari under Shidhai PSI lodged written complaint before commission. The complainant informed that during her ten years married life, often the opposite party tortured upon her mentally as well as physically. After knowing the financial condition of the complainant's parents house, the opposite party always forced her to bring money from her parental house. Under the effect of intoxication, the opposite party tortured upon the complainant. Even Mother-in-law also tortured upon the complainant. In Counselling Session, the opposite party informed that the complainant maximum time tried to stay at her parental house. The opposite party admitted that sometime he took alcohol but denied and said that he didnt torture upon the complainant. Comission counselled both the parties. The complainant denied to lead a marital life but she wants maintenance. After some frequent counselling, commission solved the matter on the basis of some conditions. In counselling session it was decided that the opposite party will not to take alcohol further and also did not torture upon the complainant. The complainant maintained all the responsibilities of her family. In Follow-Up session, both the parties informed commission that they are living peacefully. The commission closed the case are reconciled.

F.3(1)-TCW/DV/Sl. 94/18

On 6.8.18, one lady from Chaanmari under west PS, lodged written complaint against opposite party. In her complaint, complainant said that out of love and affair she married opposite party at temple. She also said that after their marriage they stayed in a rented house and after that they shifted Kolkata and also stayed there for some days. But after some days the opposite started torture upon her. The parents of the opposite party went to Kolkata and returned back along with their son i.e opposite party. After that the opposite party did not make any contact with the complainant.

In counselling session, the opposite party said that they were living as husband and wife for some days. The opposite party returned to Agartala due to his mother's illness. Presently the opposite party did not want to continue a conjugal life with the complainant.

Commission Counselling both the parties. The complainant demanded for compensation. After long counselling it was decided with the consent of both the parties that the Opposite Party will give Rs 4,00,000/ (Four Lakhs) to the complainant at a time. As per the decision, on 25.9.18, the opposite party in presence of the Member of the commission, handover the cheque of Rs.4,00,000/(Four lakhs) to the complainant.

F.3(3)-TCW /Kidnapped/Sl.38/19

On 5.5.18, one lady from Piyarichara under Kadamtala PS, filed written complaint before commission. In her complaint, she said that a boy from upthakhali under Panisagar Ps, forcefully kidnapped her daughter from dharmanagar on 3.5.19. The complainant tried lot to rescue her daughter but failed to rescue. The complainant informed commission regarding the matter. After receiving the information, women commission's Chairperson Smt Barnali Goswami reached to that spot where the boy kept the kidnapped girl. When the Chairperson reached to that spot, the local people and the family members of the boy gave objection, but avoiding all situation, taking risk of her life, Chairperson Smt Barnali Goswami rescued the girl from one closed room. Police came to that spot after receiving the information and controlled the situation. Chairperson with the help of the police handover the girl to her parents. Victim girl also gave statement regarding the statement.

F.3(2).TCW/Maint/Sl.02/19

On 29.1.19, one lady from Kalikapur under West PS, lodged written complaint before commission claiming compensation from her husband i.e opposite party. Commission counselling both the parties frequently for solving the matter. The opposite party agreed to give compensation. The complainant also demanded for divorce. In counselling session, with the consent of the parties, it was decided that the opposite party gave Rs. 9,50,000/ to his wife and children as compensation but in two instalment. The opposite party deposited the money before the commission. After getting the decree of mutual divorce, the complainant received the total amount of Rs. 9,50,000/ from the commission.