

SUCCESS STORIES OF 2019-2020

F3(1)TCW/DV/SL 301/19

On 21.10.18, a Complainant lodged a complaint against her husband at TCW. She informed that they got married 3 & ½ years back and since that her husband regularly tortured her physically and mentally under the effect of intoxication. Both parties have been asked for counseling at TCW. During counseling session Respondent told that he torture her wife due to her bad behavior. After long counseling session commission mitigated the matter. Now they are living together peacefully.

F3(1)TCW/Misc/SL 26/19

On 16.05.19 under Dasda Police station, a man lodged a complaint that his minor daughter was missing while going from Dharmanagar to Dasda on same day. Simultaneously Complainant informed the matter to TCW. After receiving the complaint, without making any delay Chairperson, TCW, investigated the matter. On 16.05.2019, at 10.30pm, the Chairperson, TCW, went out for searching that minor girl. At first Chairperson paid her visit to the rented house of that minor girl. After reaching there she met with the friend of such minor girl and after conversation, Chairperson, TCW, came to know that the minor girl had a regular conversation with her boyfriend. Chairperson, TCW, collected the number of that boy from minor girl's friend and talked with that boy. After a long searching, the Chairperson, with the help of police rescued the minor girl from Laalchara and handover the girl to her parents.

F3(1)TCW/Adultry/SL 18/2019

On 4.11.2019, Complainant lodged a complaint against Respondent for adultery, at TCW. In her complaint, it is informed that Respondent stay out of station due to his job. He did not give any maintenance and also denied to take responsibilities of his wife and children. In counseling session respondent denied the allegations, given by complainant, but agreed that he did not maintain her wife and children. After long counseling session, on the basis of some conditions, commission mitigated the matter. As per the decision of the commission the respondent agreed to deposit Rs. 15000/- per month in the SB Account of Complainant. Also it was decided by the commission that the Respondent during his leave period, will stay at his own house with his wife and children. The respondent also promised that he will not do any work which bring trouble for the complainant. The Complainant informed later on to the commission that now they are living peacefully.

F3(1)TCW/Property/SL 354/2019

According to law, to get the paternal assets a lady under Sreenagar P.S, lodged a complaint at TCW against her brother. Accordingly TCW, requested both the parties for counseling. In counseling session, the complainant demand to get her full paternal assets. Respondent also agreed to do so. Then it has been decided in presence of complainant, respondent and local panchayet member, the respondent will hand over the assets to the complainant which she entitle and as per the decision of the commission, the respondent will hand over the assets within one month from the date of the decision. Later on the complainant informed the commission through written application that she got her all assets back from the respondent.

